

Psalm 15: Flow of Thought

Psalm 15 lists ten characteristics that answer the opening question. The first three are the big categories, while the other seven unpack what the big category looks like in everyday Israelite life.

Question (v.1) →	Threefold Answer (v. 2) →	Examples →	Result (v. 5b)
LORD, who can have close fellowship with you?	The one who is blameless ("upright")	→ (v. 4) chooses godly influences and keeps their word	Stability in life
	The one who does right ("righteousness")	→ (v. 5a) honors God by treating other right
	The one who speaks truth ("truth in his heart")	→ (v. 3) does not hurt others with their words	